

REMARKS

The present Supplemental Amendment supplements the Amendment filed on June 21, 2006, and is submitted further in response to the Official Action dated March 21, 2006.

The independent claims have been amended to positively recite the features of a portable telephone, a camera, a mobile computer and a portable information terminal in the body of the claims. For example, claim 1 has been amended to positively recite a main body, an audio input portion and a display device. Claims 2-30 have been amended in a similar manner as is appropriate for each claim.

In addition to the detailed arguments presented in the Amendment filed June 21, 2006, it is respectfully submitted that the claims of the Koyama '184 patent do not teach or suggest the above-referenced features of the present invention. Therefore, the claims of the present application are not a timewise extension of the invention as claimed in the Koyama '184 patent. Reconsideration and withdrawal of the obviousness-type double patenting rejections are requested.

Should the Examiner believe that anything further would be desirable to place this application in better condition for allowance, the Examiner is invited to contact the undersigned at the telephone number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,

Eric J. Robinson
